In aid of St Andrew's Church, the oldest building in West Wratting, the Auction of Promises will be a fun-filled evening for the local community.

Residents from around the village have donated a wide array of promises for you to bid on. Pre-bids are welcome, in addition to submissions on the night, and the person with the highest bid when the gavel comes down wins! Only the winner will pay, and they will receive the promiser's contact details for arranging/collecting their prize.

Suitable for all ages, the Auction of Promises will be held at the West Wrating Village Hall on Friday 6th October at 6:30pm.

Tickets cost £20.00 each in advance which includes a 2 course supper, glass of wine and glass of port. If you have any dietary requirements, please let us know when booking.

As well as the auction and meal, attendees can also expect a cash bar, raffle and lots of good company!

If you would like to pre-register a bid, please visit the village website:
